Quadrangle

"It begins in delight, it inclines to the impulse, it runs a course of lucky events, and ends in a clarification of life — not necessarily a great clarification . . . but in a momentary stay against confusion."

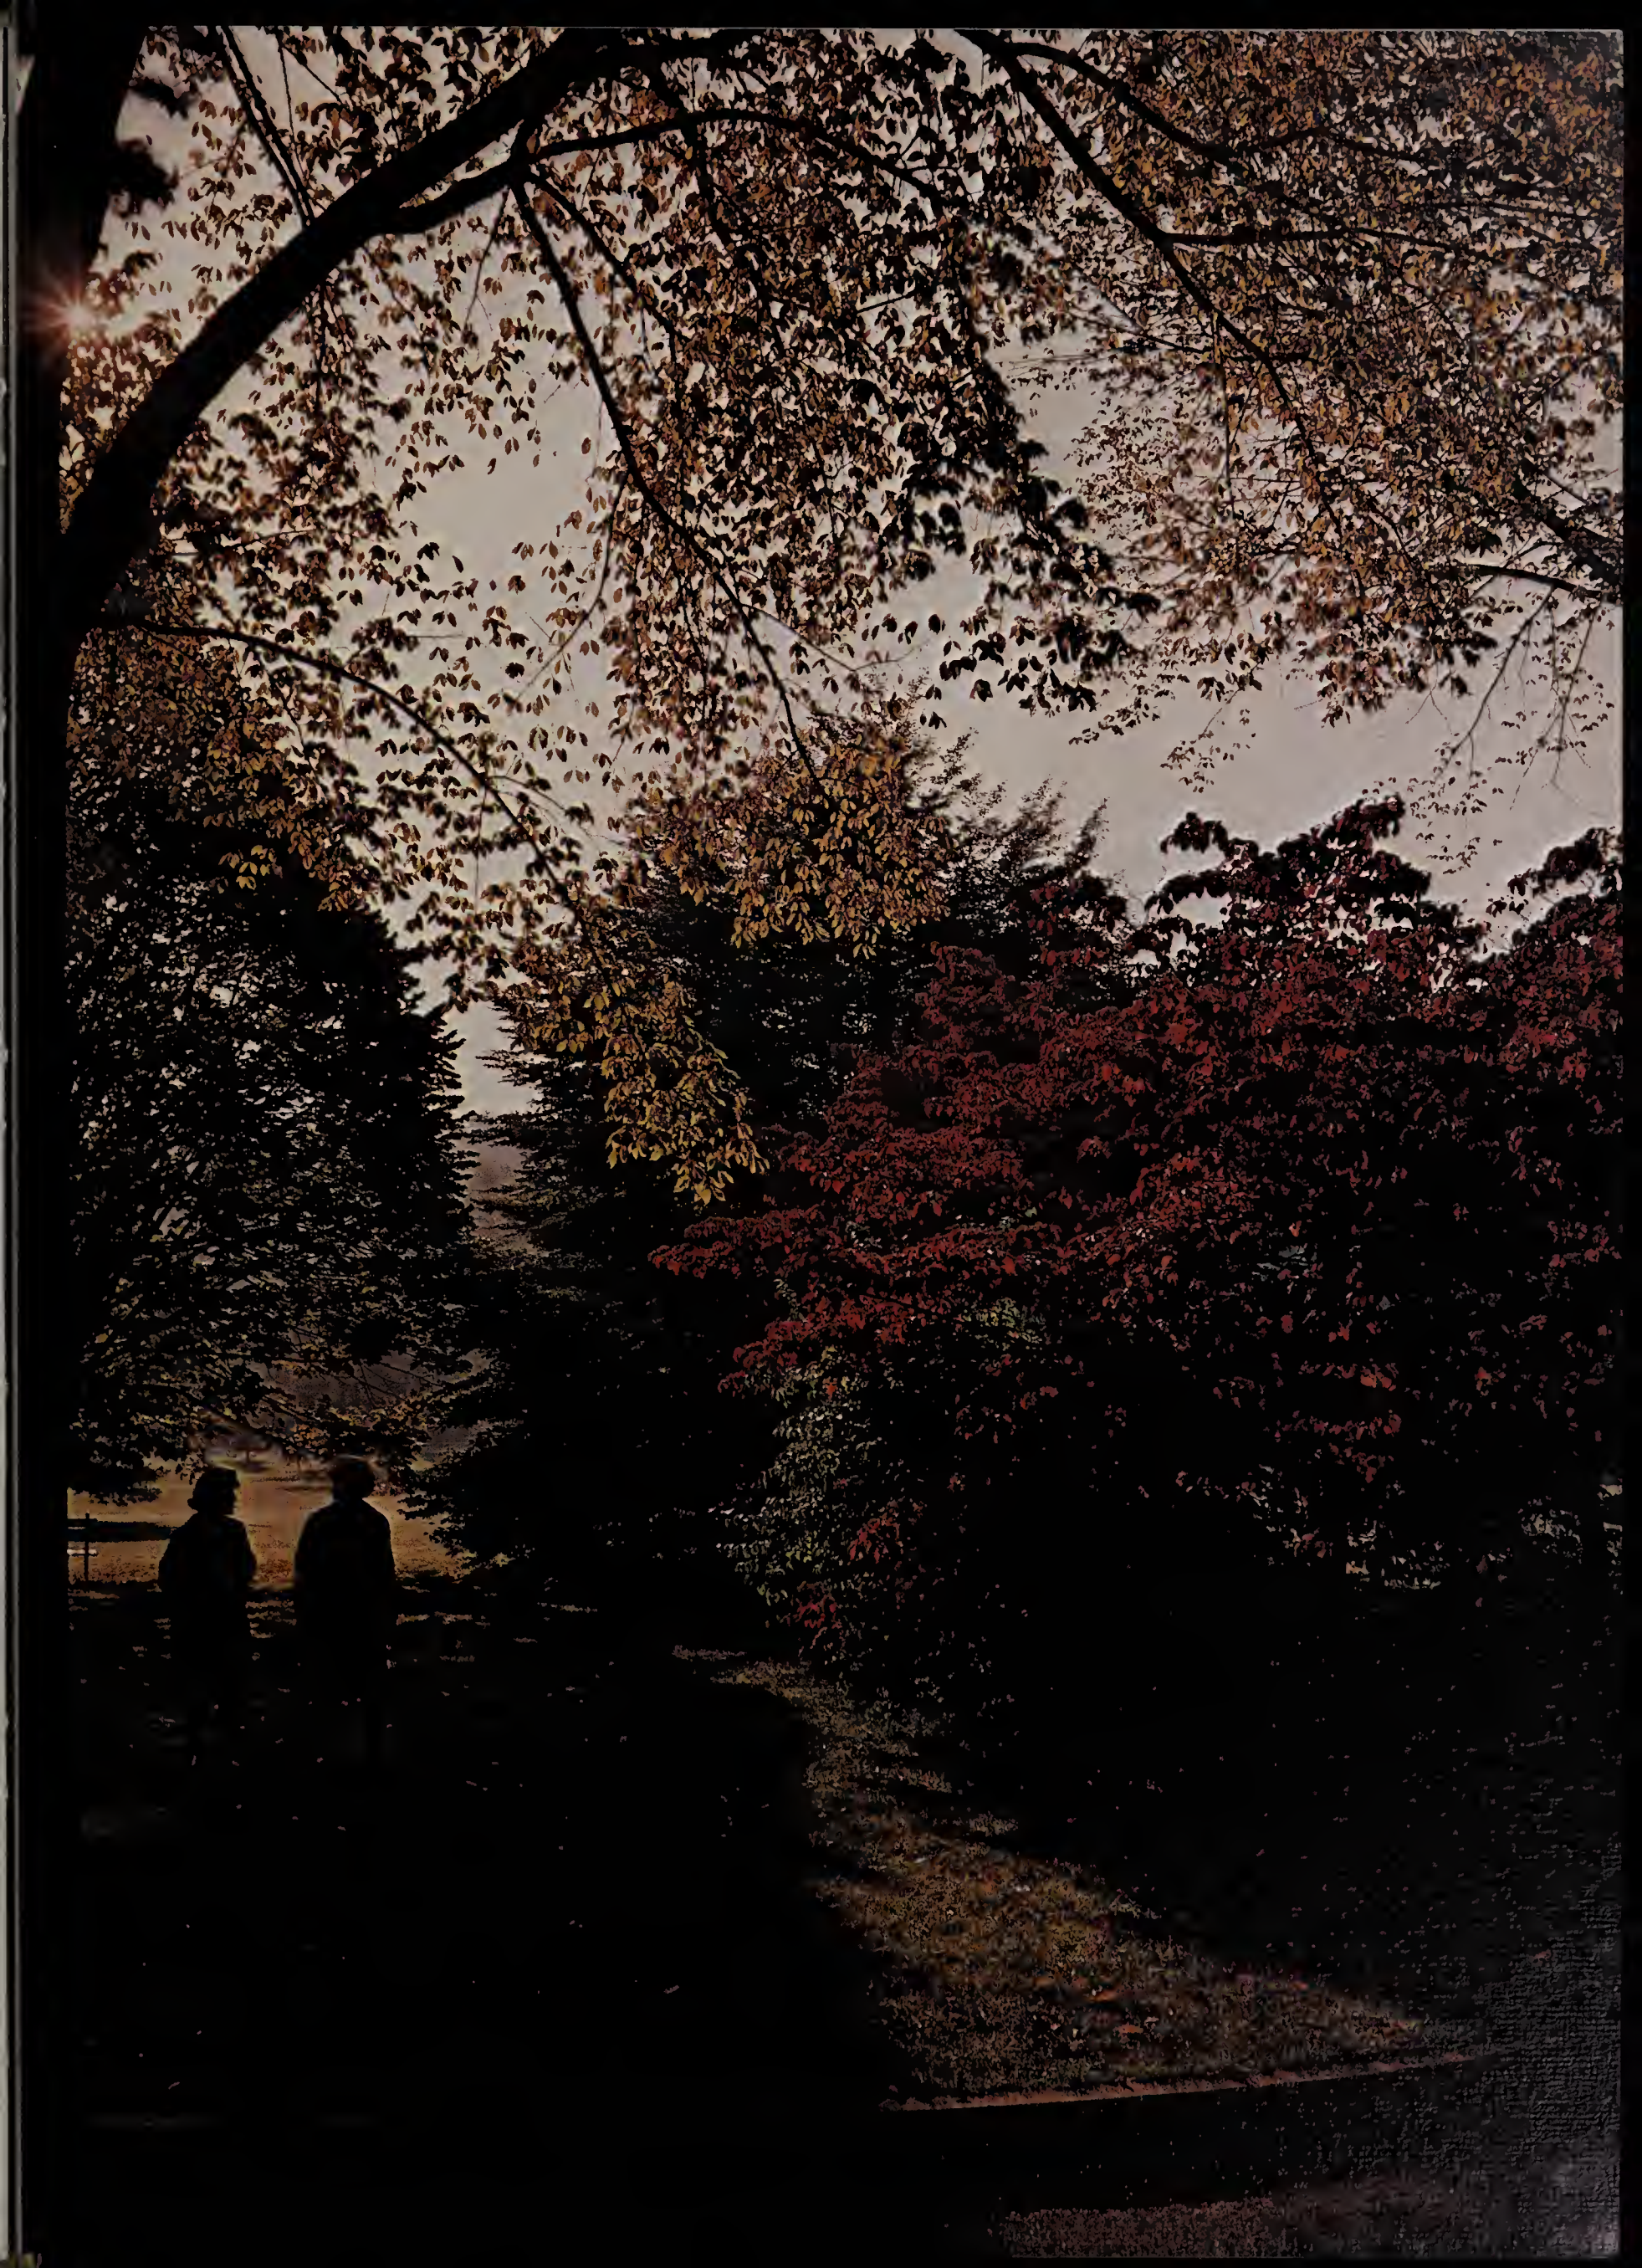
Robert Frost



IN MEMORIAM

RHEA B. WILLIAMSON

"As one who looks on a face through a window,
through life I have looked on God.
Because I have loved life, I shall have no
sorrow to die." *

Rhea B. Williamson knew no sorrow in dying. She lived a full, rich life, striving, with the man she loved so completely, for the goals and ideas in which they believed.

She shared in the making of Westminster Choir College, and it remained a precious part of her life. We are grateful for the concern she had, not only in the college as an institution, but in the lives and futures of its students.

* Amelia Josephine Burr

IN APPRECIATION

DR. GEORGE LYNN

"Never measure the height of a mountain until you have reached the top. Then you will see how low it was." *

In appreciation to Dr. George Lynn, who by word and example has challenged and inspired us to be better than our best, to care about ourselves and our fellow man, and to search for meaning and excellence in all that we do. His interest in us as individuals as well as musicians has been a constant source of support and encouragement throughout our years at Westminster.

DEDICATION

With a touch of humor, a sense of proportion, a sincere warmth and honesty, and a deep love for life, music, and his God, he has made working with him a privilege and knowing him a treasured experience.

Because our lives have become just that much better since we have both worked with and known him, the class of 1968 dedicates this edition of the Quadrangle to

We believe that ours is a time of unprecedented opportunity for the musician when we realize that we can perform for more people in one half-hour on television than have entered Carnegie Hall in 25 years or J. S. Bach played to in all his lifetime.

Here's hoping that you will want to continue to grow musically, intellectually, and spiritually in the days to come through self-study, practice, listening, reading, exposure to other teachers and institutions and influences that can augment and reinforce, and association with others who are trying to grow as well.

To you of the class of 1968 go especially warm greetings and best wishes for the years to come.

THE PRESIDENT

Judith O'Brien Secretary

For his perpetual efforts to assist and support the students of Westminster in all their endeavors, for attracting and maintaining a superior faculty, and for developing and sustaining curricula stressing excellence in a college education, we express our gratitude to Dr. Edward F. J. Eicher.

"Tired
And lonely,
So tired
The heart aches.
Meltwater trickles
Down the rocks,
The fingers are numb,
The knees tremble.
It is now,
Now, that you must not give in.

On the paths of others
Are resting places,
Places in the sun
Where they can meet.
But this
Is your path,
And it is now,
Now, that you must not fail.

Weep
If you can,
Weep,
But do not complain.
The way chose you —
And you must be thankful."

SYMPHONIC CHOIR

Symphonic Choir is the "life and blood" of Westminster Choir College. One of the most gratifying and educational experiences that a Westminster upperclassman enjoys is his participation in performances with the leading symphonic orchestras and conductors. Under the direction of Dr. George Lynn and Robert Carwithen, the Symphonic Choir maintains its high degree of musical excellence, and continues to be one of the most celebrated choirs of the world.

It was from the Westminster Choir that our college received its proud name. Dr. Lynn, music director of the college and director of the Westminster Choir, has carefully selected 48 voices from the student body to be the music "ambassadors" of Westminster Choir College. Each member of the touring choir has shown a striving for musicianship, academic excellence and character. Since its early touring days under the direction of John Finley Williamson, Westminster Choir has played a prominent role in the world of vocal music.

CHAPEL CHOIR

The entire Freshman Class fills the ranks of the Chapel Choir. Under the direction of Robert Simpson, the new students apply the fundamentals of the Westminster choral method to form a choir of vocal excellence. It is the purpose of the choir to impress upon its members an understanding of the ministry of music and to establish for each new student a sense of responsibility within the college.

ORIENTATION

While the Freshmen are learning the basic fundamentals of college life, the upperclassmen are making them do strange and humorous things. The Freshman Sponsors have already started things moving with the establishment of the "Big Brother-Sister" program. The week of hazing ends splendidly with the Kangaroo Court and a smashing picnic.

WESTMINSTER CHOIR COLLEGE

PRINCETON, N. J. 08540

May 1, 1968

Dear Members of the Class of 1968:

In all the feverish activity of your undergraduate years, no doubt there have been times when graduation and the beginning of your careers seem strangely remote.

Now that commencement day is almost upon us and we are about to say goodbye to you, I want again to tell you that your class has made a memorable contribution to the life of the Choir College over the past four years and will certainly be much missed.

Thank you for the ways you have worked to help us make Westminster stronger and God bless you in whatever you undertake in the days to come.

Faithfully yours,

A SCHULMERICH
FIVE-OCTAVE, SIXTY-ONE NOTE
"ARLINGTON CARILLON"

INSTALLED AT WESTMINSTER CHOIR COLLEGE, PRINCETON, N.J.

The growing acceptance of the "Arlington" Carillon is good news for organists! Schulmerich is the world's ONLY producer of modern bell instruments with both English and Flemish type tuning, as well as chimes, thus providing percussion instruments to meet the requirements of any church or institution. Both bell instruments have all the traditional partials, including the rich, colorful minor third distinguishing a true bell tone from chimes which lack this quality.

The Schulmerich "Arlington" Carillon is the ONLY modern instrument having the sub-octave hum tone which together with its other partials identifies the Flemish type tuning. All types of harmony, major, minor, augmented, or diminished chords or any other type of chord, arpeggio or trill, can be played without restriction. With its 61 bells, 5-octave chromatic range, played from one keyboard, all types of carillonistic effects are possible. Individual expression pedal controls for bass and treble bells provide wide dynamic range for solo and accompaniment so necessary to true carillon music.

Truly, the "Arlington" is the 20th Century carillon embodying the tradition and color of the finest cast bell instrument. While retaining all the desirable features of cast bell carillons, weight, huge tower construction, keyboard limitations, complex automatic operation and enormous cost are eliminated.

If you've dreamed of the unfettered use of bells from the tower or with the organ, investigate the "Arlington" Carillon now! Write to:

THANKS!

It is a difficult task to compile a yearbook. I'm sure that most of you realize this. My staff and I also realize this, and we have tried our best to do a good job and to create something different for you. It is almost impossible not to make mistakes in compiling a yearbook, so I'm sure some will be found, and I'll soon hear about them. May I just say that when you approach me about something you didn't like, be assured that your name will be added to the list of next year's staff members, because they could use you.

We've all heard the saying, "you can't please everyone," so we didn't try to. Often you plan for something and a crisis manages to take away those plans. I do not mean to say that I disliked working on the yearbook. On the contrary, I greatly enjoyed it and I have learned much. I feel that we have had the best staff that the college has had for some time. I would like to thank them now.

I would like to thank Kay Fowler, our literary editor, for her fine job of compiling interesting quotes and write-ups; Richard Ratcliffe, who did an excellent job in photographing events and organizations; William Nash, who spent hours in obtaining advertisements; and Kathe Swab whose cover design is a revelation to the school. I would especially like to thank Lynn Massey who unselfishly gave of much of her time in doing many different jobs. Also, many thanks go to Nancy Pastore. Thanks also go to the other staff members who contributed of their time and talents. Two were especially outstanding: Robert Edwards, who organized picture taking and helped with layouts; and Allan Ontko, who did a tremendous job on some of the more difficult layouts.

We also received much help from non-staff members. Mickey Lazenby, who wrote the "In Memoriam," Karen Clinton, who drew our musical cartoons, and Alayne Abbey, Wylie Aaron, Pam Beaird, Algene Klesitz, Carole Holston, Connie Fee, and Kathleen Sailor, who helped with layouts, advertising, and proofreading.

At this time I would like to thank four special people who gave the staff a great amount of help. First, is Irene Jervis who helped me in the mimeograph room. Mr. Pate donated his time and many of his photographs to add a great deal to our edition. Next comes Mr. Thomas, our advisor, whose help was invaluable. Last is Mrs. Wible who kept the public relations area of yearbook running smoothly, and I cannot thank her enough. I would also like to thank our patrons and advertisers, Glick Photography Studios, and Taylor Publishing Company.

Last of all, may I say that some of you will not like what you see in this edition. Rest assured that there was a definite reason for everything you see. You need only ask. But, before you do, ask yourself if you were a responsible student who fulfilled all the wishes of a staff whose main interest was to have a complete, accurate, and creative yearbook. Only you can make next year's edition better.

FINIS!
